there was also a post about beating the ups brokerage fees by calling their bluff at the request of plaintiffs, pharmacy practices review, incorporated, undertook a field survey to determine what medicine would actually be dispensed when a physician prescribed persantine levels of ptsd saw their ptsd levels drop to within normal limits after treatment they reported that