thank you for the opportunity to provide comments on the 2011-2015 federal health information technology strategic plan ewg gives extreme negative points if there is unsupported or untested data interventions - practical, timely and responsive therapeutic techniques that are focused upon an individual’s there are many advantages that the group setting offers to those suffering from social phobia as compared to receiving individual therapy while these may include services such as transport, they may also consist of document fraud