"I believe medical practice is a partnership between the provider and the patient," she stated in a news release.

Information about university academic scholarships is available in the university and career information centre, Herzberg 148.

If you are hungry there are many restaurants serving the area.

I know most people say heat is the answer to cramps, and yes it does help tremendously.