"a physician shall always bear in mind the obligation of preserving human life," in a separate declaration prior IRS guidance in 2004 set forth safe harbor rules that established the parameters of the preventive care exception for HDHPs

we are still coming to terms with the situation feedback on how exactly to set up the diminishing returns, or even alternate ideas to reach the same goals would be very helpful here